

Student Participation in European Seminar

The European Commission is conducting a seminar entitled

Tempus Regional Seminar on University Governance in the Southern Mediterranean Countries

The seminar will be conducted in Catania, Italy, in the period 7-8 March 2011.

The National Tempus Office - Jordan is trying to identify a student to participate in this seminar and to contribute to its activities. The European Commission will cover the cost of participation (air ticket, accommodation for three nights, Visa fees, and most of the meals). Interested students are requested to send a one-page letter identifying up to three issues in university governance in Jordan and showing/analyzing their impact on the quality of education, quality of graduates, and preparedness of the graduates to the job market.

Letters should not exceed 400 words, should be written in Word format in English, and sent to tempus@mohe.gov.jo no later than 3:00PM on 18th January 2011. Any submission not adhering to these conditions will be automatically excluded.

Potential candidates may be called for a personal interview based upon the quality of their submissions. Then the successful candidate will be notified.
