

Princess Sumaya attends Tempus Day celebrations

AMMAN (JT) — HRH Princess Sumaya on Wednesday attended Tempus Day celebrations at the Princess Sumaya University for Technology. During the event, the Princess said the programme helped strengthen cooperation between countries involved in the programme, highlighting the Kingdom's keenness to implement the project's initiatives to develop its higher education system. Tempus is one of several cooperation programmes in higher education between the EU and 28 partner countries, including Jordan, according to an EU statement. It is designed to help the process of social and economic reform and/or development in the partner country.
