

UJ receives one million euro environment grant

The University of Jordan's Water and Environmental Research and Study Centre on Wednesday received a one million euro grant from the EU under the Tempus Programme to establish a master's degree programme in environment engineering and climate change. Specialised universities from Germany, Norway and Portugal will help in implementing the programme, according to the centre's director, Ahmad Salaymeh.

Jordan Times

3-11-2011